

Indiana residents do not want you to weaken our pioneering legislation that has effectively protected our personal time from unwanted solicitations from the petitioning banks or any other petitioners. Indiana's no call list has provided a much needed elimination of the majority of these types of calls. Please do not ruin this silence in our lives by weakening our legislation.